Description

Folding Upholstered Armchair.
A campaign or folding teak chair newly upholstered. This wonderfully comfortable armchair has a padded contoured back and padded arm rests, all for extra comfort. It is fully adjustable. It will recline into several positions from upright to near horizontal by means of two brass collars and metal pins. This type of chair has also been called a steamer chair. The excellent quality teak frame is polished with three turned stretchers and is in good original and usable condition.
