Description

Vintage Holland & Holland Leather Cartridge Magazine Case.

A fine large leather shooting cartridge magazine case by the renowned British gunmaker, Holland & Holland, 98 New Bond Street, London. The cartridge case with oak carcass covered in tan leather, it has a working brass lock but no key. The magazine case is in good original condition with two original leather straps, brass corner protectors, brass disc to lid and single leather central carry handle. The interior with polished oak finish and containing five oak removable dividers, making six compartments, with adjustable cartridge lifting straps. The inside of the lid is dark green baize with a leather embossed 'Holland & Holland' makers label. The top brass disc engraved "Norman Loudon, Mallards, Bucklers Hard, Beaulieu, Hants".

A cartridge magazine is a traditional method of storing cartridges between shoots. When on a shoot the cartridges needed would be removed and placed in a cartridge bag.

The shooting print is sold separately.
