Cricket Print of Joseph Guy of Nottingham.

A framed, tinted and hand coloured lithographic portrait of the All- England cricketer Joseph Guy (1813 - 1873) of Nottingham after John Corbet Anderson. Printed by Richard Black and published by Anderson & Lillywhite, London, 1853.

Guy was nicknamed 'Gentleman Guy'. He was an English professional who played first-class cricket from 1837 - 1854. He represented the Players in the Gentleman v. Players series, was also a member of the William Clarke's All-England Eleven and played for Hampshire.

A rare lithograph.
