Description

Vintage Photography, Antique Alpine Ski Photograph.
'THE RACE', a new mounted black and white photograph after an original 1930's skiing photograph. Black & white alpine photos are the perfect addition to any home or ski lodge, so please, do check out our other ski photos and winter landscapes.
The photo is showing a biplane racing a car on a frozen lake. This amazing photograph was taken in Grainau, a small town in Bavaria, at the foot of Germany's highest mountain, the Zugspitze.
The pilot is General Ernst Udet - the World War I flying ace who flew in the famous Richthofen squadron and the driver was either Hans Stuck or Caracciola as both raced Ernst Udet on the frozen lake Eibsee.

The price displayed is for the mounted photo only.

The external size of the mount is 20 ½" x 14 ¾" - image size 15 ½" X 10".

The alpine photograph is available in a black frame with burgundy undercoat, the glazing is clarity+ premium synthetic glass. Images of the frame are shown. The external size of the frame is 22" x 16" and it is priced at £115.

These photographs can be produced in a larger size if required, please contact us for more information.

The photos are made to order so please be patient, colours and tones may slightly differ to those illustrated.
