Description

Snaffles WWI Military Print, Gunners.

A good Snaffles WWI military lithograph with hand finishing with the title 'Gunners'. The picture shows a team of six horses and three drivers, two smoking and one examining a horse's hoof. In the bottom margin is a remarque depicting the team riding past a dead horse with the caption 'There Lay the driver's brother with 'is 'ead between 'is 'eels. (Rudyard Kipling)'. This Charles "Snaffles" Johnson Payne (1884 1967) picture is in good original condition with the Snaffles blindstamp (a bridle bit) bottom left-hand corner and framed in a period black frame.
