Description

Vintage Snaffles Hunting Print, The Informers.

A Snaffles hand coloured artists' proof photolitho entitled 'The Informers'. The main picture shows two donkeys watching a fox trotting by, there is also a remarque in the bottom left hand corner with a title 'The Moon Lighter' with a fox sitting on top of a stone wall eyeing up a farm yard in the distance. This Charles "Snaffles" Johnson Payne (1884 1967) picture is framed in original black frame and in good condition. stamped with a Snaffles blindstamp (a bridle bit) in the bottom right hand corner marking its authenticity and with artists signature in pencil. Snaffles was celebrated for his ability to blend humour with keen observation, often incorporating witty captions and remarques into his works and this is one of his most sought after subjects.
