Description

Vintage Lionel Edwards Billiard Prints 'The Cuetown Hunt'.

A wonderful and rare set of four colourful, humorous billiard chromolithographic prints in a fox hunting style. The series is entitled 'The Cuetown Hunt' with each picture having a different subtitle 'Going to the Meet', 'Gone Away', 'Full Cry' and 'The Finish'. The pictures also have a different caption to go with the depicted scene, 'Cutting The Cloth', 'Pocket', 'Spot Leads' and 'A Canon off The White'. They are after Lionel D Edwards (1878-1966) and published by Landecker & Brown, London, 1903. Each print is in original Art Deco frame with copper accents and shelf.

The prints do have some slight foxing and marks, but are a very decorative set for either the hunting or billiard enthusiast.
