Description

Novelty Meerschaum Pipe, Dr. W.G. Grace.

Vintage smoking tobacco pipe featuring a meerschaum bowl skilfully carved into a head of a bearded gentleman. The intricate carved bowl has a likeness of the famous English cricketer Dr. W.G. Grace. However, with the way the cap tilts it could equally be an American civil war soldier. The pipe with an attractive amber stem and an engraved white metal collar.

A great little cricket collectable.

There are also several images of the pipe with two other pipes that are available separately. Call for details.

A meerschaum pipe is a type of tobacco pipe crafted from the mineral sepiolite, also known as meerschaum. It's a light, porous mineral that absorbs moisture and heat, contributing to a cool and flavorful smoking experience.
