Description

Pencil Drawing of a Young Fishing Boy.

A well executed pencil drawing of a boy holding a fishing rod, he has a creel over his shoulder with a fish popping out the top. Framed in period mahogany frame with gold mount and glass.

To the rear is stuck a piece of paper with hand writing on it. It is difficult to read but we can make out

The back of the picture with a label inscribed, "Mr Craig, No. ?? Carlton Street".

A very nice well executed, slightly naive drawing.
