Pryce-Tannatt black japanned fly box. John Forrest's nickel logo to front of lid ' J. Forrest, Oxford St., London '. A cream interior housing four loose felt cards containing a quantity of P-T hand tied trout flies. Dr Edwin Pryce-Tannatt was a self-taught fly dresser who is arguably the most important of the last century. His flies are outstanding in quality, colour and the finished detail is remarkable. P-T is the most respected of past fly dressers within the related guilds and associations and for any fly dresser his book ' How to Dress Salmon Flies ' is a must.
