Description

Exhibition catalogue, 'Sports and Games and Great Campaigns'.
This was the third joint exhibition with Christopher Clarke Antiques, a specialist in military campaign furniture and travel related items. 'Sports and Games and Great Campaigns' brought together the best of both worlds and showed how easily the two sat together. The catalogue had 124 items with colour illustrations over 60 pages.
This catalogue was produced for the exhibition but as with the other publications we have done they are now being used as a valuable reference source.

The price is £12 which includes postage and packing within the UK. The catalogues can be purchased as individual publications or there is a discount for buying more than one of the available catalogues, please contact us for further details.
