Description

Charlie Hunter, Golf Club Maker, Prestwick. Robert Cree Crawford,
A fine photogravure by Annan & sons, after the painting by R.C. Crawford, of the famous Prestwick professional and club maker 'Charlie Hunter'. The picture shows Hunter standing on the golf course with a long nose wood in his right hand and a feather golf ball on the ground in front of him. The golf picture is mounted and framed behind glass.

Robert Cree Crawford (1842-1924) was a Scottish painter living in Glasgow. He painted most subjects, including sport, but his reputation was largely based on the portrait paintings that he did.
