Description

Collection Of Dunlop 65 Balls In Original Packaging.
Four tubes of the iconic 'Dunlop 65' golf ball. First produced in 1935 to commemorate Sir Henry Cotton's 'perfect' second round score of 65 strokes in the 1934 Open Championship. He went on to win the Claret Jug at Royal St Georges, Sandwich with a four-round total of 283. Two of the tubes are with cardboard sleeves with 'Christmas Greetings', the eleven balls are all with original wrappings.
