Description

GOLF BOOK, MEMOIRS OF MORT OLMAN, THE GRANDFATHER OF COLLECTING GOLFING MEMORABILIA.
A great hardback golf book called 'Memoirs of Mort Olman, the Grandfather of Collecting Golfing Memorabilia' by Mort Olman. The book is with a black cloth cover with a dust jacket and nicely illustrated in colour and black-and-white. Masters Champion and golf historian Ben Crenshaw has written the forward with the introduction by John Hopkins, senior Correspondent with the Times of London.
This book is of many stories of the people and events that have been part of Mort Olman's life as a golfing memorabilia dealer. You will learn how his hobby has been conducted over the past 40 years and how individuals have been involved with shaping the hobby.
Printing of this book is limited to 1000 numbered copies and each one is signed by Morton W. Olman, who passed away in 2010.

PLEASE CHECK AVAILABILITY.

Also available are leather bound copies, please contact the shop for price and availability.
