Description

Small Pigskin Leather Cartridge Bag - Exceptional Condition.

A beautiful and compact pigskin leather cartridge bag, offered in exceptional, near-as-new condition. Made in the traditional style (maker unknown), it features an adjustable canvas shoulder strap and brass fittings, all clean and well preserved. A superb example of a traditional cartridge bag with no previous owners' initials, ideal for anyone seeking a finely preserved vintage field accessory or very usable as a lady's handbag or a stylish man bag.

Because it follows the classic, time-honoured design, its exact date is uncertain, though it is likely from the 1950s.
