Description

Royal Doulton Lambeth Ware Cycling Jug.

A rare Royal Doulton Lambeth stoneware jug with art nouveau design and three cycling scenes in white relief showing Men and Woman on bicycles originally designed by John Broad. The scenes are entitled: Military, Road and Path. The Military scene has three soldiers, two holding bicycles and one playing the bugle. Road has three cyclists riding their bikes, two gentlemen with a lady in-between. Path has three cyclists on racing bikes. The base of the jug is stamped "Doulton Lambeth England" the number "166" and "s 00". A great large golfing pitcher in fine original condition, no chips or repairs. A great item for any cycling enthusiast.
