Description

A rare large oak combined billiards and life pool scoreboard housed within an oak cupboard. The front door of the cupboard is hinged and when opened reveals a wonderful scoreboard. The billiard scorer has ebonized rollers with gold painted numbers, 0 to 100, and white slides to mark your score. The Life Pool board consists of 10 slides with coloured ivory discs (each colour representing the player's cue ball) and each slide reveals 3 birch wood discs, one for each life. There are also "stars" hiding, and they are used as extra lives. In the middle of the scoreboard there is a slate covered door which when open reveals a ball compartment.

The game of Life Pool can be played by a number of players, who form the pool. Each player has their own coloured ball and loses a life each time the ball is potted by an opponent. When a player loses all of his lives he is out of the game.
