Description

Equestrian Print, Heywood Hardy.

A fine photogravure after the original painting by Heywood Hardy titled 'Too Late'. The 'romantic' print depicts a young couple leaving the church where they have just got married. Her distraught father and brother have arrived 'Too Late' to stop the wedding. The artist's signature is printed in the image at the lower right corner with the date 1885. Below the image to the left the artist is given credit for the original painting, followed by the title in the centre 'TOO LATE', and the name of the printers 'Goupil & Co.' to the right. Under the title it states 'From the original picture in the collection of John C. Holder, Esq. Printed in Paris _ London March 1886. Published by I.P. Mendoza, St. James's Gallery King St. St. James's.
