Description

Wonderful Roland Knight Angling Oil Painting - The Net.
A fine original Victorian oil on board depicting a classic angling scene by the renowned fishing artist A. Roland Knight, who is known for his detailed trout studies and sporting subjects. The painting is presented in an ornate gilt frame, enhancing its period character and making it a striking decorative piece.
The composition captures a hooked rainbow trout taken on the fly and being carefully netted. Executed with vibrant colour, intricate detail, and a lifelike quality, the work beautifully conveys the immediacy of the moment and reflects the artist's characteristic sensitivity to atmosphere and natural form.
Titled 'The Net', the painting is signed "A. Roland Knight" to the lower left corner. There is also writing to the reverse reading: "Trout Fishing, The Net, 18300."

A highly decorative and collectible sporting artwork.

Frame size: 28 cm high x 35 cm wide
