Description

Folding Coaching Table, Writing Table.

A very good quality mahogany folding writing table with red leather surface with gilt tooling. The top is hinged to the centre to enable it to fold up and the base is an X-frame, very similar to a coaching table or campaign table. There is a brass catch that clips in place when the table is open to stop it collapsing and a brass lock to keep it closed for storage or transport.

Measurements shown are for the table open, closed measurements are:-
103cm high, 62cm wide & 32cm deep.

There are no makers marks or name on this table, but in the past on tables of this style they have had labels for Finnigans Ltd. of London, Manchester & Liverpool or W. Thornhill & Co. of London.
