Description

Arts & Crafts kneehole Partners Desk.
A large late 19th century Arts & Crafts oak partner's desk. The rectangular Gothic Style desk with a tooled leather writing surface, each pedestal fitted with three drawers to the front and a cupboard to the rear. The drawers with the original handles and lock escutcheons. This wonderful desk has panelled sides standing on plinth base with castors, polished all round enabling free standing. The desk has never had a drawer above the kneehole, although the freeze has been removed for extra leg space and is now missing. The tooled leather writing surface is in usable condition, with stains and some patches of missing leather.
