Description

Golf Plate Them's Mushrooms.

Antique humorous golfing wall plate titled "Them's Mushrooms", with artist's monogram F A R. The scene is of an elderly gentleman about to strike his golf ball, only to be told by his young smirking caddie "Them's Mushrooms". The plate has a decorative rim and two holes on the rear rim for hanging. There are no makers details on the plate but Royal Winton, Bridgewood and Grimwade's are known to have made similar plates.
