A fine, characterful and fully usable antique niblick dating from the classic hickory era of golf. This hickory-shafted "Niblick" is by Spalding and features a heavy head with smooth clubface. The reverse of the club head is stamped with the Spalding logo (cleek mark) along with "Warranted, Hand Forged, Crescent". The club is fitted with a later suede leather grip.

Measurements provided refer to the length of the shaft (including the hosel) and the width and depth of the clubface.

A great example in good, usable condition, suitable for modern hickory play. Approximately 46° loft with a swing weight of C-9.
