Description

A Golfing Record Book.

A luxurious leather bound golfing record book with a silver plaque as the front cover. The plaque is hallmarked 1992, Sheffield, with the makers initials 'R.C'. The plaque has an embossed Victorian golfing scene of a gentleman just teeing off watched by his female partner in a long dress and straw boater. There are two young caddies with them. The book features course layouts of the seven Championship courses with their score cards and a list of 'British Open' winners since 1860. There are plenty of pages for your round report with score card and a section to record your handicap. The seven Championship courses are St. Andrews, Royal Lytham & St. Annes, Turnberry, Royal Troon, Royal Birkdale, Royal St. George's and Muirfield.
