Description

Shooting Photogravure - Rough Shooting - Ireland by Douglas Adams.

A superb shooting photogravure taken from the original painting by renowned British artist Douglas Adams (1853-1920). This striking print captures the energy and elegance of the shooting season with Adams' characteristic attention to atmosphere and detail.

Titled Rough Shooting - Ireland, the scene depicts two sportsmen in action-one aiming from behind a cluster of rocks-set against a richly textured, atmospheric landscape. Adams' masterful use of light, perspective, and composition imbues the print with both vitality and charm, making it a quintessential example of late 19th-century British sporting art.
